

In-person NYSITELL screening is mandated; the test cannot be administered remotely. The NYSITELL can only be administered to a student once upon initial entry to a New York State public school or upon

Except for the purpose of taking inventory of the test materials when they are received, secure test materials for the Listening, Reading, and Writing sections of the